MEMBERSHIP FORM

Established in 1989, the Friends of Stones River National Battlefield, Inc. serves as both an advocacy and advisory group for and a cooperative partner of the National Park Service to positively promote and protect the history and resources of Stones River National Battlefield.

As a Friend, you will have the opportunity to assist with current and future endeavors, including:

- Creating and sustaining the Henry Patthey Memorial Scholarship for Rutherford County students attending Middle Tennessee State University
- Providing supplemental resources to educators within Rutherford County pertaining to the details and significance of the Battle of Stones River, in both a local and national scope
- Developing additional educational tools for the general public
- Creating cooperative partnerships among multiple levels of government as well as both public and nonprofit sectors seeking common goals
- Continued sponsorship of commemorative activities and educational opportunities within the local community
- Continued advocacy for the preservation of significant battlefield landscape features... and more!

Friends receive our periodic newsletter The Vidette and are asked to participate and vote in our annual membership meeting in June of each year. We also encourage your participation and invite you to share your specialized skills in helping us to attain and further our goals. If you are a local member residing in Middle Tennessee, we invite you to attend our monthly board meetings. If not and you live abroad, you can still participate by providing your voice and ideas.

We invite you to join! Just select the desired membership level below:

- Regular membership $20
